

"NAN" PATTERSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Actress Arraigned Before Judge Newburger Charged with the Murder of "Caesar" Young—Wants Immediate Trial.

Nan Patterson, the young actress who is charged with the murder of Bookmaker "Caesar" Young, was arraigned before Judge Newburger in General Sessions to-day to plead to the indictment found against her by the Grand Jury. She looked very well, considering the strain she has been under. Before her appearance in court her lawyer said she had fainted twice in the Tomb, but at the bar she showed no such signs of weakness and seemed to take a keen interest in the proceedings. Her lawyer, Levy, put in a plea of not guilty and then asked for an immediate trial because of the physical condition of his client. Assistant District Attorney Rand said that as far as he could see the physical condition of the prisoner was very good and that while he had no objection to a speedy trial he thought it should be based on something reasonable. Judge Newburger declined to fix a date for the trial, but suggested that the woman's attorneys get in consultation with the District Attorney's office and agree upon a time. The prisoner was then taken back to the Tomb.

GOULD CHAUFFEUR APPEALS IN COURT

Motor Driver for Frank J., Charged with Over-Speeding, Asks Retrial When Sentenced to Thirty Days in Jail.

(Special to The Evening World.)
GREENWICH, Conn., June 21.—William W. Everett, a chauffeur for Frank J. Gould at Rye, N. Y., was today sentenced to thirty days in Bridgeport jail and to pay costs, in the Greenwich Borough Court by Judge Tierney, he having been found guilty of running the Gould machine on Saturday through Greenwich avenue, the main street, an eighth of a mile in twelve seconds, according to the statements of Sheriff Ritch and Constable Mitchell. Mr. Gould did not appear in court, evidently figuring on a fine only. Fines imposed on two previous occasions on other chauffeurs did not stop speeding here so the authorities decided upon severer methods. Everett appealed the case and a friend of Mr. Gould's gave $500 bail for the man's appearance.

Dressmaking Dep't. ANNOUNCEMENT:

We offer, at greatly reduced prices, all of our Model Gowns, both the imported and domestic designs. Alterations desired can be made at once. Dressmaking orders will be accepted at very liberal concessions from our regular low prices.

New Garments from Abroad.

We recently sent to Paris a representative whose chief duty is to keep us in closest touch with the swing of the fashion pendulum. He is constantly sending us new garments to be reproduced by our manufacturers and sold, as we sell garments of American designing, at a modest profit above actual cost of production. We expect no greater profit from novelties than we get from staples. That an article is quite new and for that reason little known does not license us to ask an exorbitant price for it. This is demonstrated in our pricing of three garments new to the season—a triple cape, a semi-coat and a long silk coat. The cape and semi-coat are exclusively shown here at present. The long coat we sell at $13.92, and it is the same garment that has been selling elsewhere at $20.00. Wherever an opportunity arises for making a fair comparison on any line of merchandise, Macy's strictly cash system has new champions.

Rich Silks of Wide Variety Figure in this Mark Down Sale

As good Silks as women ever bought—but because quantities are limited we have put a new price on every yard, thereby creating the best Silk-buying opportunity of the year. Of some lots there are but twenty and twenty-five yards, the majority average 125 yards, and there is one lot of almost one thousand yards—this is a single pattern of Satin Foulard. There are imported barre effects in light shades, fancy effects in light and dark colorings; crepe applique in white and black, embroidered with gold; sole sommiell, fancy moire, 27-inch plain peau de cygne; plain, twilled and satin foulards, plain satin duchess in blue and pink, and white peau de cygne. Complete price details are well-nigh impossible. An idea only must suffice.

As many of the lots are so small, early purchasing is imperative if you desire choice of the marked-down lines.

Sterling Silver Table Ware. The "Gladiolus" and "Bridal Rose." Two Prominent Designs:

There are other favorite patterns in the complete showing, but we mention our new "Gladiolus" and the ever-popular "Bridal Rose" merely because the interest of June buyers seems to centre about these two particularly. But with all the wealth of designing, this display could be no more inviting than any other really good showing of sterling ware if it were not for Macy's prices. They are based upon a strictly cash system, and if there is any inconvenience in such a system, it is more than made up by the large savings possible in no other. The claim—then the evidence supporting it:

Books---The Money-Saving Lesson They Teach.

Your search for a store that sells Books as cheaply as Macy's will be fruitless. We are quite alone in underselling all others. Competitors are persistently silent on this subject, mainly because an explanation involves not books alone but every sort of merchandise they sell and we sell. Macy's is a cash store and totally unlike any other store in the world. No matter what you buy here you will pay cash for it promptly—but you will pay less than at any other store. Books serve as a peg on which we hang a general story. The saving on some Books may not average more than 10 per cent. On other lines of merchandise, notably in the higher class goods, you very frequently find Macy prices just one-half what others ask.

Porch Furniture.

There are thirty-five designs here, in natural maple, red and green—and a minute's study of this variety convinces one that the day of commonplace Porch Furniture is well-nigh gone. The fact that our sales of these special designs average more than a carload a day convinces us that the designs, while new to the season, are destined to become permanent. Another year will see them copied widely—this year they are exclusive with us. The prices will never be as low elsewhere.
